

Dear Parents, Carers and TCP family

I hope you are all managing to keep well and warm. Thank you for sending through your photos which as always are always very well received. Read all about the new Zoom timetable below too.

What you have been up to this week

Billy with his Chinese New Year Craft

Rosie with her Chinese New Year Craft, her weather chart from our allotment session last week, Rosie kept her diary and even included pictures. Well done Rosie. Here is also a picture of her Valentine's Day biscuits.

Archie walking on Bookham Common and cleaning the car.

Anna's Chinese New year Craft and dancing and walking the dog!

Victoria painting her bird box

Talia's Chinese New Year Craft

Chrissie enjoying a walk.

Alex getting breakfast ready.

David with his Valentine's Day biscuits and Robert with his biscuits.

Michael's and Sarah's Delicious looking biscuits

New ZOOM Timetable Activities

Click here for an updated weekly Zoom timetable that shows some additional sessions and their timings which will be commencing from next Monday 15th February. The timetable is also available on our website as a download.

Starting on Monday @ 2.00pm we have "Round the World" - Join Eddy as you travel around the world from your living rooms to discover many places and traditions. Each session you will look at a different country and what is has to offer from music to food, language and its customs. There will be interactive videos, activities and plenty to chat about.

On Tuesdays @ 3.00pm Lisa A will be hosting an interactive game of Bingo. Bingo cards for the next few weeks will be sent out to you later today along with the regular documents sent to you by Lisa B. Don't forget to shout out "BINGO" as soon as you get a full house!

Straight after craft on Wednesday mornings, Eddy will be delivering the 'Escape Room' @ 11.30am. Do you have what it takes to escape? Put your thinking hats on and help many heroes and famous characters solve mysterious puzzles and clues! Many adventures await you in an interactive escape room style session.

Last but not least, on Thursdays we have introduced "Thursday Tales" at 2.00pm just before French @ 3.00pm. Lisa A will be reading well known stories from Disney/fairytales and exploring how to use your voice to create famous characters. These Zoom sessions will be a mixture of reading, listening and recalling lines from these famous stories.

I hope you all enjoy the new activities and they keep you busy.

Pancake Day Boredom Busters

Download the Pancake Day Challenge Cards:

Pancake Recipe

Download our Pancake Recipe card.

Pancake Wordsearch

Download the Wordsearch.

Pancake Mindfulness Colouring

Download the colouring charts.

Vaccination news

It is great to hear that many of our clients have received their 1st vaccine or now have a date for it. Please don't hesitate to contact me if you need any help or advice if your son or daughter is displaying anxiety around their vaccinations.

Congratulations to Alex on his vaccination this week.

Please could I ask you to send me an email with the date of your son or daughters vaccination dates so they can be recorded and then held on their records confidentially.

We will be sending them out a certificate in the post, so please look out for it.

Wishing everyone a lovely weekend and stay safe and warm.

Lisa

P.S. Don't forget to login later today for our "Valentines Party" @ 3.00pm.